Benny's Burning

Villa Nah are a new synth-pop duo from Helsinki whose enchanting songs are wowing fans all over the world. Juho Paalosmaa and Tomi Hyypää's timeless take on romance, synthesisers and melancholy is proving hard to resist, and even before their stunning debut album 'Orgin' is released, the pair have attracted attention in NME, Vice and DJ magazine.

'Remains of Love' the third single from 'Orgin' delivers a synth-driven melodic approach which leaves you in no doubt that you're in the presence of a special group who are doing something fresh yet familiar.

B-side's 'Benny's Burning' is another dazzling love cut from Villa Nah's drawer.

Recent press quotes:

NME: "Reigniting electro-pop's romantic flame."

Vice "Villa Nah imbue their songs with a sense of wonder and longing."

DJ "Dreamy Scandinavian disco from this hotly-tipped duo... There's sure to be a few tears on the dancefloor." 4/5 review for 'Rainmaker' single
